one near to him in the midst of his fight for liberty. His sister, Mrs. Margaret Thaw Carnegie, wife of George her husband would be here to greet him to-night. They reserved rooms at a local hotel, and Thaw expressed a wish to his counsel that his sister be brought to the jail as soon as she ity of extraditing him; offers of assistance from detectives and a call by him upon his relatives in Pittsburgh for funds. This was answered by a telegram from the Union National Bank saying "Draft will be honored." Thaw without any opportunity having been given him to be heard." He recited here," was O'Mara's message.

THAW'S LAWYERS WIN FIRST ROUND OF LEGAL BATTLE

That the Canadian law entitles y man to a hearing before he is behird the bars, and Thaw was n no such hearing. der the law of the Dominion it is al for the same officer to perform functions enumerated in the secint made by White.

e White was presenting the apon for the writ, Shurtleff was asy. He had photos taken of a dicket which Thaw had in his linn when arrested. Shurtleff at this was a ticket to Detroit the are photographed because int it was photographed because r that "something might happen shows Thaw's lawyers are takhances, and that everything ing to be entirely harmonious Dominion's representa-usel for the defense, aw wen to-day, his law-yen greater danger ahead. h his liberty," they say, but" is due to the fear the habens writ-representatives of the of delaying the habeas seedings, or, if that failed, a ruling that their client "ticket to Detroit" is the basis latter contemplated action.

Alleged Accomplice Held. the crowd that surrounded the to-day, the Sherbrooke police answering the descrip-Thompson, one of used of conspiring to free from Mattenwan. To-night he fired in the same building with out they have not been allowed s arrest he was locked up the curiosity seekers about illding being any the wiser, and waspeople became aware that hompson, and immediately en-solicitor Shurtleff, one of counsel to protect his inter-To-night, Shurtleff asserted e would have no trouble in that he is innocent of any Thaw was not informed of impson's arrest, according to J. H e, governor of the Sherbrook Phonoson will have to stay in jall until next Friday, when his case will be heard by Judge Mulvena. He was inable to furnish bail when arraigned, and the Dominion authorities say they not accept cash bonds, the anti-Thaw forces, headed by for Vearrette, K. C., who will op-the habeas writ before Judge ensky to-morrow, were swelled y by the arrival of three New State officials, These were Disrict Attorney Conger and Sheriff Horn-seck, of Dutchess County, and Deputy ev-General Franklin Kennedy,

They were accompanied by Dr. Britton D. Evans, the noted alienist, and George S. McLeech, a friend of the Thaw family. These two men also attended the conference.

One of the party carried a small leather bag, which was reported to contain valuable pagers and $25,000 in arnegle, who is known as her possible would be done to keep her (Continued from First Page.) shall s prother out of Mattonwan.

Horning denied that any of the $12.-

Wood's High-Grade Seeds.

Crimson Clover The King of Soil Improvers. also makes splendid fall, winter and spring grazing, the earliest green feed, or a good hay crop. CRIMSON CLOVER will increase the productiveness of the land more than twenty times as much as the same emount spent in commercial fertilizers. Can be sown by itself or at the last working of corn, cotton or other cultivated crops.

We are headquarters for Crimson Clover, Alfalfa,

Winter Vetch, and all Farm Seeds,

Write for prices and Descriptive Fall Catalog, giving information about all seeds for fall sowing.

T. W. WOOD & SONS. Seedsmen, - Richmond, Va.

Dive right in---take a tum-Bathing suits---a third off; he free is problematical. Dominion immigration authorities, watching every were $1, now 65c.

Others that were $1.50 now $1.15. Plain navy or black, or black with red.

50c Socks at25c
50c Scarfs at25c
$1.00 Bathing Suits at65c
$1.50 Bathing Suits at $1.15
50c Soft Collar and Tie at 25c
$5.00 Silk Shirts at$3.55
$4.00 Silk Shirts at $2.85
$3.50 Silk and Linen Shirts at$2.15

$4.00 Oxfords at$2.85

$5.00 Oxfords at$3.85

$3.00 Straws at$1.45

$7.50 Flannel Trousers at $4.75

IS NOT EXPECTED

Long Legal Battle, Lasting for Weeks, Probable in Thaw

IS NEARLY $12,000

(Continued from First Page

for the rural parts of the State.

The response to the Governor's call throughout the rural region was lineral. In Cape Girardeau County 2,500 men worked on the roads, and every district was thoroughly organized About 400 men left Hamilial to work on the highways near that town. All city prisoners were put on the work.

the Governor's call was shirly county is well supplied wit roads, maintained by a hea-liusiness men of St. Louis, b contributed liberally to a fur which.

which to buy road grading for the rural parts of the

QUICK SOLUTION

$2.50 Madras Shirts at . . . $1.88 $2.00 Madras Shirts at . . . $1.45 $1.50 Madras Shirts at . . . $1.15 $2.00 Soft-Cuff Shirts at . $1.15 50c Underwear at35c $1.00 Underwear at......65c $1.50 Pajamas at$1.15 $2.50 Pajamas at$1.95 $1.25 Night Shirts at 75c of justice in liberating Tnaw. The war-rant is here, but will not be pressed ON Derry G until the immigration law violation the alarm of the aged deputy who to-morrow, had him in charge, and stopped only. The agents of the Dominion imm when hystanders began a hue and cry, tion department have seriously

George Lauder Carnegie, the prisoner's brother-in-law and sister, who arrived here from New York to night. They will decide if any more lawyers are needed, and will engage allenists to prove that Thaw is saile if any attempt is made to deport him on the grounds of insanity.

Family Conference Held.

Immediately artist their arrival. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie's likel a conference with their and Mrs. Carnegie's likel a conference with the prisoner over the telephone. Thaw was overloyed to hear his sister's voice, and held an affectionate conversation with her.

They were accompanied by Dr. Britton D. Evans, the noted alienist, and George S. McLeech, a friend of the court of the surface for the disposition of the difficulty of the strength of the court of the court of the court of the court of the court. Of the surface is than 300 came to the court. Of the set than 300 came to the court. Of the set them the court. Of the set them to the court. Of the set than 300 came to the court. Of these than 300 came to the court of the straility of the attention of the distribution of the distribution of the straint of Justice. The general belief at Sherbrooke to wish the attention of the straint of Justice. The general belief at Sherbrooke to make the usual speculation, but crowding and shoving were completed by the immigration. Then will come a long legal battle, including the familiar conflict between allensists. This probably would have to the usual variety with the usual whispers and the usual variety of the customet conspicuously lacking.

Messrs Conger and Hornbeck waited like the others for the disposition of the disposi

Horning denied that any of the $12.5 and said. "I am co-operating with officials of the lawyers, she said. "Of course, we shall man't for Harry as we always have He deserves his we always have He deserves his the surface of the court of th

Canadana Maria Managana

Let us mail you The Times-Dispatch while on your vacation.

MAY BE SHORT LIVED

Immigration Officials Waiting to dicated a sense of lonesomeness and a longing for a direct word from some Seize Thaw If He Is Released.

[By Associated Press.]
Sherbrooke, Quebec, August 20.—
Harry Kendall Thaw's legal fight against deportation to the United States, after his dramatic escape from the Matteawan State Hospital for the Criminal Insane on Sunday morning last, will begin in the open in this Canadian frontier town to-morrow morn-[By Associated Press.] last, will begin in the open in this Ca-nadian frontier town to-morrow morn-ing at 10 o'clock. He is to be pro-duced then before Judge Globensky, of the Superior Court, on a writ of habeas corpus, obtained by his counsel this afternoon.

If the writ is sustained he will be a more in the case, announced to-night they stand ready to detain him, should he be released, and then to take steps to thrust him back across the border as "an undesirable alien," either at the New Hampshire line, where he en-tered the Dominion or at some point tered the Dominion, or at some point in New York State.

Of these five, one is believed to be in jail in Sherbrooke. He gave the name of "Mitchell Thompson," and insisted that he was a resident of Toronto, But both Sheriff Hornbeck and Dist.

The point of the jail said, when he was searched after his commitment. Among the telegrams was one from Roger O'Mara, the Pitts burgh detective, long identified as the both Sheriff Hornbeck and Dist. me of "Mitchell Thompson," and in-ted that he was a resident of Toron-But both Sherin Hornbeck and Disto-day, said he was none other than "Gentleman Roger" Thompson, late of New York City, and reputed chauffeur of the black automobile that whirled Thaw from Matteawan at more than sixty miles an hour.

Thompson was idling in the Superior waiting for the Thaw case to court, waiting for the Traw case to come up, when the immigration officers arrested him. He was quickly identi-fied as one of the two men with Thaw when he was arrested near Coaticook yesterday. He denied that he had aided Thaw in crossing the border and maintained that he had met the fugitive by chance. Notwithstanding his protestations of innocence, he was held in bail for a hearing Friday. Unable to pro-duce the bond, he was remanded to Technically, he is charged with aiding and abetting a lunatic to cross the Canadian border, an offense punishable with a $500 fine. If the authorities fail to hold him on this thorities fail to hold him on this distribution of the carry them successfully through tomorrow's skirmish without uncovering the control of the carry them successfully through tomorrow's skirmish without uncovering the carry them successfully through tomorrow's skirmish without uncovering the carry them successfully through tocharge, District Attorney Conger will seek his extradition on a warrant charging Roger Thompson with conspiring with others to defeat the ends will blow any case of smithereens," one of his s been tested.

Sanity Question Threshed Out. Thompson's defense, it is under-tood, will emphasize (provided he of any crime or that he was confined

The committee held a night session with Horning still on the stand. The witness toll of paying $500 to Patrick Ryan, a labor alion atterney, and $250 to a man named Shelling connected with the local Gentral Labor Union, for Work done in congressional elections. He said the more old not want to take the more, but that he gave it as a present because they have been working for the re-cleding of men the pawnbrokers whiled to see returned to Congress Questioned by members of the committee he said we had paid $200 or $400 for hotel and traveling expenses by Eyan are precised.

support from relatives and friends. His mother, Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw, however, had up to to night sent him to word as fee as could be learned.

Are You Going Away?

Phone Monroe r, or call at the Circulation Department of The Times-Dispatch. Phone Monroe I, or call at the Circulation Department of The Times-Dispatch.

Particle Manager of M

FREEDOM, IF IT IS WON, HEQUITS MATTEAWAN BECAUSE OF HIS WIFE Simplicity is the Thaw Says Her Return to Stage Is Greatest Blow He Has Suffered.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] I need you. Harry."

Mrs. Carnegie's action was equally prompt, and quite as emphatic, for she notified her brother that both she and I have suffered."

Striding up and down in the hospital ward of the Sherbrooke jail to-night. Harry K. Thaw gave the above reason for his sensational Sunday morning dash to liberty from the Matteawan Asylum. Thaw was plainly impatient as he tried to tell the details of the plans that are connected with his as for his sensational Sunday morning dash to liberty from the Matteawan Asylum. Thaw was plainly impatient as he tried to tell the details of the plans that are connected with his escape, but he is kept in check by his counsel and restrained himself.

"I know that the public is with me in my fight to be declared sane," he declared with more than his usual vehemence. "I could not get a fair trial in New York State; every one knows that. The courts in New York were afraid to let me out. And so when I learned that Mrs. Evelyn Thaw had returned to the stage, I determined to get out of Matteawan at any cost."

"Does that mean that you wish to "I desire nothing so much as peace and quiet," he replied. "The main issue of life is before me. I hope to lend at as a sane useful member of society. I want to be with my family and to see the old place in Pennsylvania once. There are many things in my life that I wish to forget, and I wish to be allowed to forget them in quiet."

Room Filled With Flowers.

Many women, including summer boarders and tourists, have called at to see Thaw. When refused they would generally leave, or have sent later a bouquet for the prisoner. As a result, his room to-night was like a bower of flowers. Other telegrams sent or received by Thaw referred to legal and medical assistance, to advice as to the possibil-'Does that mean that you wish to flowers. "I have opinions from best authori-ties that you cannot be extradited. Wire me what can be done for you from

Bears No Mallee.

Thaw puffed his cigar for a moment and then answered thus—ignoring the first part of the question: "I do not mean that I will harm her. That is ridiculous. I have no malice toward as has been printed, that I would seek to harm Dr. Flint, Mr. Jerome or any one else. I have no malice against any one.

This people of New York State designed that the said that the was in Sherbrooke to take the fugitive back to Matteawan. Thaw for Carnegles brought more money with them.

District Attorney Conger said that in addition to the warrant against Thaw for conspiracy, he was working up a bribery case that could be used if all other methods of getting the fugitive failed.

"The people of New York State designed to take the fugitive back to Matteawan. Thaw for Carnegles brought more money with them.

That is further the sheriff had said that he was in Sherbrooke to take the fugitive back to Matteawan. Thaw for Carnegles brought more money with them.

The function of the question: "I do not brought more money with them.

That is further the sheriff had said that he was in Sherbrooke to take the fugitive back to Matteawan. Thaw for Carnegles brought more money with them.

The function of the question: "I do not burgh to-day, and the Carnegles brought more money with them.

That is further the sheriff had said that he was in Sherbrooke to take the fugitive back to Matteawan. Thaw for Carnegles brought more money with them.

The function of the question: "I do not burgh to-day, and the Carnegles brought more money with them.

That is further the said that he was in Sherbrooke to take the fugitive back to Matteawan. Thaw for Carnegles brought more money with them.

The function of the question: "I do not make the fugitive back to Matteawan. Thaw for Carnegles brought more money with them.

The function of the question of the fugitive factor of the fugitive factor of the fugitive factor of the fugitive factor of the fugitive back to Matteawan. Thaw for Carnegles brought more money with them.

The function of the f Thaw's Petition.

Thaw in his petition for a writ of habeas corpus set forth, first, that he was committed to jail "without any preliminary examination whatever, and further that he is not charged with "any offense against the criminal laws of Canada or of any other country," any one and "because the offense charged any one,

he was convicted."

It is upon the wording of this complaint that Thaw's attorneys hope to plaint that Thaw's attorneys hope to them successfully through to-

"Why, we have masked batteries that will blow any case of this kind to smithereens," one of his attorneys exclaimed this evening, while discussing the matter. Thaw also complains in his petition that he was never confined at Mattea-wan on a criminal charge, and that it is untrue that he was heaver and that it Thaw) the contention that Thaw has not been insane in Canada, and that assisting him to enter, therefore, was not a violation of law. In this way the question of Thaw's sanity will not a violation of law. In this way not a violation of Thaw's sailty will the question of Thaw's sailty will be investigated in the procedure sepathal warrant he himself had sworn out. Thaw "prayed" in his petition. rate from his own case.

Thompson's arrest in the courtroom to-day was unnoticed by the casual spectator. The prisoner dodged the camera squad while being removed to jail, Shielding his face with a handker-chief, he broke into a run, greatly to to-morrow.

still holding his handkerchief sidered the probability that Thaw will be released. They do not plan to give him more than a moment's freedom. To sustain their case, they have half a dozen clauses in the immigration act the "prohibited class" any "insane permen, but Other Runs and Escapes.

and Escapes.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Alexandria, Va. August 20.—Two heldings and a robbery occurred early to-night form of the sun asking them to the Thaw surely will be returned to New York State," continued the district attorney, "probably by deportation, as the Canadian government does not want him on its bands. If not by deportation, then by extradition. We have a lot of possibilities to develop in both directions, in fact, it is a matter of choosing the best one We shall try to do that. Thaw should be back in Matteawan soon. Then we shall see whether he can escape angain.

Alexandria, Va. August 20.—Two heldings and a robbery occurred early to-night to the first orbitry occurred early to-night to the first orbitry. Wall a robbery occurred early to-night to the first orbitry occurred early to-night to saking them to the sup as and a robbery occurred early to-night to stand a robbery occurred early to-night to saking them to the first orbitry or held-ups and a robber or public, the Bo country. For occurred early to-night to saking them to the first orbitry or and a robber of irreductions. The first country had a robber of irreduction and the public or and control or an article and the point of a pistol and robbed of $18.

The same men appeared an

The police here made an ineffectual effort to locate the highwaymen.

It is proposed to erect a Catholic Church at Del Hay, Alexandria County, to be known as St. Rita's. A supper was held at that place to-night, and funds derived will be applied to the church fund.

The Alexandria Free Kindergarten is just now searching for suitable quarters for the coming school term. Owing to lack of room at Lee School building the school board requested the kindergarten authorities to vacate the room in that building, formerly occupied by it, until the City Council furnishes the school authorities additional room. It is understood that the kindergarten contemplates taking quarters for the coming school term at the Children's Home. Twenty children at the Children's Home the latter part of the month will be given a two weeks outing at Colonial Beach. They will be guests at the Bell Home at that place. Recently a lawn fete was held, and the proceeds of this will be used in entertaining the little ones during their sojourn at the beach. police here made an ineffectual effort

EXPOSITION COMMITTEE

Mayor of Richmond and Governor of Virginia Named.

Announcement was made yesterday of the Virginia members of the general committee of the Anglo-American Exposition to be held in London May to October, 1914, as follows: Mayor George Ainslie, T. M. Carrington, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce; Congressman Henry Delaware Flood, Congressman James Hay, Governor William Hodges Mann, Congressman Andrew Jackson Montague and Congressman Edward Watts Saunders. The exposition will celebrate the 160 years of peace between English-speaking people, following the signing of the treaty of Ghent in 1814, which marked the close of the War of 1812. The exposition is organized under the auspices of the Duke of Connaught, patron, and the Duke of Teck as honorary president, with a group of vice-presidents including some of the most prominent men in England and America. The American general committee is made of up well-known men in every State, who are in sympathy with the plan of cementing the trade relations of the United States and Great Britain.

Britain. Arrested on Speeding Charge.

son if he had been forced to live in such a place as Matteawan, surround-ed by terrible, in many cases, violent

"Was I not right in leaving? I knew that medico-legal conditions in New York were such that it was absolute-Sherbrooke, Que., August 23.—"I fled by impossible for me to prove my santity in New York State. You know that. Every official and newspaper man in New York knows. I know I am sane and I am willing to have a test made and it is devoid of complicated anywhere except. New York where "Does that mean that you wish to be declared sane so that you can sue her for divorce?" he was asked, "or does it means you intend to prevent her from appearing upon the stage?" Hears No Malice.

Thaw puffed his cigar for a moment and then answered thus—ignoring the conditions the condition of the conditions are considered as and the conditions are conditions. The conditions are conditions as a condition of the conditions are conditions as a condition of the conditions are conditions. The conditions are conditions as a condition of the condition of the conditions are conditions as a condition of the condition and "because the offense charged against him is not an offense under Canadian law, he therefore cannot be tried."

The allged offense with which Thaw is charged is briefly that he is a "fugitive from Matteawan Penitense for a criminal charge of which he was convicted."

[Onlico 1116 Dallaro

RICHMOND FEELS

ON DIPHTHERIA

Quarantined.

Diphtheria warnings were sent out the State Board of Health yester-tically last two weeks of August, and that it has its heaviest mortality, especially among children, between that time and the first frosts. With scattering reached during the day. At cases in various sections the authorities feel that it is necessary to warn. An eight-ntile wind accentu cases may be treated and carefully quarantined, the board especially warns health officers, physicians and parents to guard the first cases in any neighborhood, and by careful quarantine check the spread before conditions become serious.

"Experience has shown," says the building of the dispensible for the spread of the dispensible for the spre

The bulletin also calls attention to arrangements made for the distribution of anti-toxin, and reminds the public that this remedy can be had at cost price from the State Board of Health. The board has on hand an cost price from the State Board of Health. The board has on hand an ample stock of fresh diphtheria antitoxin of the flaest quality, prepared in one of the best Jaboratories in this country. For the convenience of the public, the Board of Health has written to the supervisors of each county asking them to purchase and keep in stock antitoxin for immediate use in cases of emergency. It is boned that cases of emergency. It is hoped that arrangements can be effected through the county authorities, so that there will be no community in the State where antitoxin cannot be had within Negro Held as Fugitive.

Thomas Jeffries, colored, was arrested last night by Policeman Crafton and locked up at the Second Police Station as a fugitive from justice from Burkeville, Va.

Ford New Superintendent.

"SANIFOLD"

the Perfect Sanitary Folding Drinking Cup—made without glue or paste from one piece of parawax paper—it's sewed. Can be folded and used many times, and still retains its sanitary state. "The Flap Does It." For sample and price list, write to JACK L. OTTENHEIMER, 1617 West Main Street, Richmond, Va. Write for Literature.

TOUCH O' WINTER

Squad From Streets.

to county and city boards of bureau, took Richmond by surprise yesow that this disease seldom fails terday and drove the linen suit brishow itself in Virginia during the gade from the streets. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon reading the thermometer stood at 79, the highest point reached during the day. At the noon hour it was one degree less.

An eight-while wind accentuated the be on their guard, and to watch for early symptoms. Anxious that early cases may be treated and carefully sociock at night the reads.

TO INSTANT DEATH

Peculiar Circumstances Surround Accidental Killing of Ten-Year-Old Girl.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
South Boston, Va., August 29.—Little Miss Louise Mebane, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Ford New Superintendent.

E. I. Ford, superintendent of terminals for the Chesapeake and Ohto Railway at Newport News, has been appointed superintendent of the Richmond division of that road, to succeed J. W. Knapp, who has held that position for several years. The change becomes effective September 1. Mr. Kriapp will be assigned to the superintendency of the Newport News terminals.

South Boston, Va., August 20.—Little Miss Louise Mebane, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Mebane, was accidentally killed last might at the home of her parents, near Wilbourne Avenue. Mr. Mebane has a workshop in the basement of his home, and on the cast side of the room was an electric motor, carrying 104 volts, but the current was turned off. The child was helping her mother clear away the supper dishes, placing them in a cupboard three feet from the motor, and in so doing was quickly drawn in a cupboard three feet from the mo-tor, and in so doing was quickly drawn backward to the motor, and, having heart trouble, it is supposed the shock killed her. Her seventeen-year-old sis-ter, Miss Estelle, seeing the accident, tried to pull her from the motor and was severely shocked. Her mother, who was holding her infant in her arms at this moment, also started to the resat this moment, also started to the rescue, but in laying the infant on the cement floor, she found to her horror that the entire floor was charged. She

Cured at the

Kellam Hopital

The record of the Kellam Hospital is without parallel in history, having cured to stay cured permanently, without the use of the Knife, Acids or X-Ray, over 90 per cent of the many hundreds of sufferers from Cancer which it has treated during the past eighteen years.

We have been endorsed by the Senate and Legislature of Virginia.

Physicians Treated Free.

KELLAN HOCE P.

Also received a shock.

Miss Maud Mebane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mebane, who happened to be present, tried to rescue both Louise and Estelle, and she also received a violent shock.

The entire matter is a mystery, as Mr. Mebane, who is an experienced electrician, stated that he could not unravel the mystery, as the current was switched off, and even when the current was on he and his family had for the past two years.

How have been endorsed by the Senate and Legislature of Virginia.

Physicians Treated Free.

KELLAN HOCE P. entire floor became charged. Mr. Me-bane also stated that whenever an elec-trical storm occurred invariably in the northeast corner of the room, apart from the machinery entirely, a violent popping sound was always audible. It was stated this morning that it was a noticeable fact that surveyors from time to time have nover been able to get any bearing in the street in front of the residence on account of the fluctuations.

tuations.

The entire accident still remains shrouded 'in mystery, many practical electricians having visited the home and each failing to understand how an ordinary electric alternating cur-

A CONTRACTOR Keynote of the Genuine TRADE MARK

parts. For instance:

The controlling mechanism is simple, easily understood and easily operated. This mechanism permits the performer to concentrate his attention upon the production of individuality in expression, and thus to obtain uninterrupted enjoyment without distraction of the mind caused by watching the music sheet and the manipulation of a complicated 'expression" mechanism.

The Forley Company

been turned on.

The funeral of the dead child will

HE MUST STAY AT HOME

Cruce Can't Go Away and Leave Headstrong Lieutenant-Governor.
Colorado Springs, Col. August 20.— Governor Lee Cruce, of Oklahoma, in a letter received to-day by the Chamber of Commerce, declined an invitation to attend the conference of Governors next week. The letter continues:

"The Lieutenant-Governor seems determined to overthrow all of my policles and to make wholesale delivery of criminals from the penitentiary.

"The Criminal Court of Appeals in this State has joined hands with the Lieutenant-Governor in this raid on the penal institutions by holding that the moment I leave the State, even if my absence extend only five minutes, the Lieutenant-Governor can do as he pleases. Under these conditions it would be a crime for me to leave Oklahoma."

Thinks Horse Was Stolen.

M. Ellis, a grocer, of 312 West and Street, yesterday reported to police that a black horse had either

OBITUARY

M. Falk.

M. York and

Michmond, died at 5:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at Atlantic City, N. J. He was formerly head salesman for Cam eron & Cameron, of this city. About nine years ago he organized the Falk

Tobacco Company. The deceased, while always a resident of New York City, was well known in Richmond.

DEATHS

HAGAN.—Died, at the home of her parents, "Orapax," Goochland County, Virginia, by accidental drowning, MARY ELIZABETH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hagan, Jr., in the eighth year of her age.

The remains were taken to the home of her grandfather, Patrick Hagan, Esq., Scott County, Va., for interment.

WHITE.—Died, at his residence 1400
North First Street, Tuesday, August
19, 1913, at 6:45 A. M., REV. W. H.
WHITE, D. D., founder and pastor of Mount Carmel Baptist Church, which flock he had led successfully for 25 years. He leaves to mourn their loss a widow, four daughters, two sons, five grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.
Funeral from the above-named church FRIDAY AFTERNOON at 2 o'clock.

o'clock. Chicago papers please copy.

MERRELLO.—Died, Tuesday, August 19, at 11 o'clock, at the residence of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Saunders, 720 Denny Street, JOHN WILLIAM, son of Mamie A. and Laurence E. Merrello, aged twelve months.
Funeral from the residence THIS (Thursday) AFTERNOON at 3

FUNERAL NOTICES

GAMERON,—The funeral of MR. GEORGE CAMERON, JR., late Mayor of Petersburg, Va., will take place from Grace Church, in that city, August 21 at 5 o'clock. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

IN MEMORIAM

EDMUNDS.—In memory of our dear son, GEORGE TRIMMER EDMUNDS, who died one year ago to-day, Au-gust 19, 1912.

One precious to our hearts has gone, The voice we loved is still, A place made vacant in our home That can never more be filled. BY HIS MOTHER AND FATHER.

HOOPING COUG

The Celebrated Effectual Remedy Roche's Herbal Embrocation will also be found very efficacious in case; of BRONCHITIS, LUMBACO AND RHEUMATISM W. Edwards & Son, London, England
All Druggitts, or E. Fougera & Co., 90 Bookman Street, N. V.